S. C. R. No. 5, Commending the heroism of South Houston Patrolman Frank Phillips.

Whereas, Patrolman Phillips was cruising down a South Houston street in his patrol car when he saw smoke coming from a house; he radioed for fire trucks, then ran to the front door of the residence, and knocked repeatedly; and

Whereas, Getting no response, he forced the door open and found two people overcome by smoke; he quickly carried both the woman and her husband, a semi-invalid, from the house and administered artificial respiration; and

Whereas, As soon as the policeman was satisfied that both had revived and were out of danger, he again went into the blazing house to rescue the couple's savings, which they kept concealed in the residence; and

Whereas, In tribute to the bravery of this outstanding policeman, the South Houston Chamber of Commerce recently honored Patrolman Frank Phillips with its citation of heroism, and it is appropriate that the Texas Legislature also express appreciation to him on behalf of all the people of Texas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of the State of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, that Frank Phillips of Pearland be commended for his heroism; and, be it further

In Memory of Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr.

Senator Herring offered the following resolution:

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 4)

Whereas, The State of Texas has lost a most illustrious son and dedicated public servant in the death of Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., on May 7, 1968; and

Whereas, Colonel Garrison had devoted his life to the field of law enforcement and as Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety for the past thirty years had fulfilled the responsibilities of the office with distinction; and

Whereas, Under his guidance the Department has achieved an unimpeachable reputation not only in Texas but in the entire nation, and the progressive and effective law enforcement methods employed by the Department are directly attributable to his brilliant leadership and serve as a model for law enforcement agencies in other states; and

Whereas, Colonel Garrison exerted a greater influence on the direction of law enforcement than any other man in the history of the Lone Star State and he was respected, admired and loved by thousands who recognized him as a great Texan in every sense of the word—a quiet man whose mild manner and soft voice often belied his intense capacity for work, his efficient administrative ability, his complete dedication to the enforcement of law and order, and his tremendous pride in the Department and in the State he loved and served so well. Colonel Garrison has left on indelible record unmatched in the annals of law enforcement, and his career will be an inspiration to all who follow in his footsteps; and

Whereas, He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Nell Garrison; one son, Homer Garrison III, both of Austin; his mother, Mrs. Mattie Milan Garrison; six brothers, Pitser Garrison, Arthur Garrison, Tommy Garrison and Frank Garrison, all of Lufkin, Hugh Garrison of Tyler and Jimmy Garrison of Baytown; two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Friday of Lufkin, and Mrs. Charles Holland of Houston; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That the 60th Legislature, First Called Session, pay tribute to this most distinguished citizen and extend deep sympathy to his family; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be prepared for his bereaved family and that when the Senate and the House adjourn this day they do so in memory of Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., and that a page be set aside in the Senate Journal for the recording of this Resolution.

Whereas, Dr. Dunn came to Lubbock after finishing his residency at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York, and began practicing in 1931; and

Whereas, In 1934, Dr. Dunn was the youngest doctor from Texas taken into the American College of Surgeons; and
